

Three young children abandoned near hospital

Daily Mirror, Tuesday, 09 March 2010

The three children, believed to be less than 4 years of age, found abandoned near a house close to Wahugapitiya Hospital in Pussellawa were produced before the Magistrate and were later admitted to the Hospital at Gampola..

Two out of the three kids are boys and out of the two boys, the younger one is seriously ill while the older boy and the girl were found to be fatigued.

The actual ages have not been identified yet but the hospital authorities believe that the oldest boy couldn't be more than 4 years. Pussellawa Police say that someone had left the children in that condition at a place like that for easy detection. Up to the time of this going to press, the mother has not been located.

A Police team and OIC- P.I.Raja advised by Senior S.P.Roshan Fernando are conducting the investigations
